held for action of court at Wheeling in May. A special term of court will be held in Philippi today when Arch Waldo of Clarksburg will come before Judge Dayton on charge of bringing in whiskey. Another special term will be held tomorrow when Judge Dayton will pass on a number of matters.

Ministers Meet—Matters of a routine nature were discussed at the regular meeting of the Fairmont Ministerial association held this morning at the Y. M. C. A. building. The association is busy at this time working out a program for future discussions at these meetings.

Surgical Operations—Miss Mary Brady, of 314 Newton street, had her tonsils removed at Cook hospital this morning. Mrs. Martha Keichaveal, of Torra Alta, also underwent an operation today at the hospital. Mrs. Etta Davidson, of 1107 Gaston avenue, was operated on yesterday.

Plate for New Bridge—A handsome bronze plate to be placed on the new South side bridge has been received in this city and will be placed today it is thought. The plate bears the names of the contractors, the date built and other data of interest.

Suit Missing—Nothing has yet been heard of the new suit which W. C. Adams left in his room at Rivesville Saturday and which had disappeared when he returned to put it on. The suit was valued at over $50 and Mr. Adams would very much like to find it. Constable Michael did his best Saturday to locate the thief who borrowed it, but so far he cannot be found.

Marriage Licenses—Marriage licenses have been issued to the following: George O'nes, colored, 24, and Emma Harris, 37, the former from Smithfield, Fayette county, and the latter from Fairmont; Carl Zurn, 24, and Josephine Layman, 18, the former from Halleck, Monongalia county, the latter from Fairmont; Lawrence A. Gault, 23, and Janet Greig Dicken, 25, Fairmont; Howard Edgerton, colored, 23, and Carrie Ellison, 16, Dakota Marion county; Oral L. McQuinn, 29, and Ona Cosot, 19, the former from Curtis, Braxton county, the latter from Hamond, Marion county.

Overworked a Good Thing.
"I don't see why you call Perkins stupid. He says a clever thing quite often."
"Exactly. He doesn't seem to realize that it should be said only once."
—Boston Transcript.

Miss Ruth Whiteman of Shinnston, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. J. L. Little in State street.
